EAST EL PASO HOME IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

House on Cypress Street Burns to the Ground Friday Night-Fire Dis-covered in Boston Store. A fire at 2916 Cypress street at 8:20 oclock Friday night destroyed the four cottage occupied Dittmar. Mr. Dittmar is in Mexico and the members of his family were visit-ing at a neighbor's. The loss is practically total. The fire company was handicapped, the house being six blocks from the nearest plug.

Fire in a pile of blankets threatened the Boston store Saturday morning, but extinguished at 7 oclock by firemen from the Central fire station.

JUAREZ POLICE RECOVER VALUABLE DIAMOND BROOCH

The story of a diamond brooch: Mrs B. S. Greil of Montgomery, Ala., lost a diamond brooch in Ciudad Juarez. An old man found the brooch, and sold it to a young man in a dance hall. The young man displayed it in a saloon fre-quented by bull fighters, and bidding for the jewelry was made. After the $100 mark had been passed, three fighters of bulls became so excited that the aggregation was rounded up in the po-lice station. Commandant of police Ponce de Leon asked to see the object of the quarrel, and immediately recognized the brooch as that of Mrs. Greil who had complained to him of the loss. So the Juarez police are holding the brooch, valued at $600, while the owner has departed from the city.

convention today recalled its action authorizing a contract for a verbatim report of its proceedings, and adopted the rules.

A lengthy set of rules designed to give the maximum of latitude in the building of the Arizona constitution and at the same time give equal opportunity to all factions, was the re-sult of the four days' labor of the rules committee, which ended with the presentation of its report to the constitutional convention.

A resolution providing for the introduction of proposals for constitutional will stand on progressive matters is a perfect. (articles was tabled, but may be recon-little difficult. sidered. If it is, the preamble to the constitution, which, as drafted, is very brief, may be adopted at once.

Matters for separate submission— Chairman, Wills; Franklin, Webb, Tovrea, Keegan. Style, revision and compilation-Chairman, Cunniff; Ingraham, Cassidy, Lynch, Weinberger.

Sizing Un the Members. Sizing up the personnel of the com-mittees appointed by president Hunt was the principal matter which occupled the delegates and others during the fourth day of the convention. Despite the usual tests of past records and former and present affiliations to forecast how some of the committees will stand on progressive matters is a perfect. Call 1005 Arizona St. Phone Dissatisfaction is expressed in Maricopa county over the membership of the committee on matters for separate submission. The chairman is against submitting statewide prohibition strongly, hailing from Pinal county, a mining region. Three of the five members are opposed to submission, while Winsor; Bolan, Franklin, Goldwater, of the other two, Franklin, of Maricopa, is pledged by his platform for submission, and Webb, of Graham, is a Mormon, and Mormons heretofore in legislatures have always been with the prohibitionists. Minority Prohibition Vote.

A minority report is, therefore, almost certain, as Franklin says, al-Legislative department, distribution though he is not a prohibition advo-A poll indicates that the convention is against submission of this proposition, but there is no telling what will be the final vote.

Should the Republicans make submission a party measure, it would put the Democrats in a pretty bad hole, if they opposed permitting the "people having a say," which was the slogan during the campaign. Personally, most of the Republicans are against submission. It remains to be seen whether they will play politics.

Cunningham, who is chairman of the important judiciary committee, is conservative, but stands on a platform declaring for all measures of the people's Weinberger, of Globe, chairman of the executive committee, which will consider the recall, is for it. The personnel of the railroad committee is conservative, except Jones, of Maricowho is very progressive. Jones, who is chairman, favors the election of the railway commission instead of making it appointive, for the reason that the recall may then be applied if needed.
